

Left click and scroll to interact with this 3D model

Technical Data

The D1151P is a firearms industry standard Picatinny fixture. It is used to manufacture a variety of mounting accessories, including tactical lights, night vision devices and laser mechanisms. For production purposes we recommend using up to 3 inches of material length per fixture.

